Subject: Re: Rabon Hearing call

We simply wanted to help Eastern North Carolina get natural gas and protect the environment and it's disgraceful that Republicans raided a fund to do just that. Sacrificing jobs so that Republicans could dole out money and issue press releases is a slap in the face to people in those counties who need jobs, and those legislators will have to answer to the people of Eastern North Carolina.

(I DON'T THINK WE SHOULD LOOK FORWARD TO SOMETHING THAT'S ILLEGITIMATE.)

Sacrificing jobs in order to manufacture a partisan power grab is a new low and legislators will have to answer to the people of eastern North Carolina. We look forward to discussing this further.

We just landed in snowy Newark. I don't recall — did they request documents?

Draft below (from Kristi):

Legislative Republicans chose to raid a fund intended to create jobs and protect the environment in counties impacted by the pipeline.

By altering an agreement for funds that the state hasn't even received, legislators have threatened this money altogether at the expense of eastern North Carolina.

Manufacturing a power struggle over a project they claimed to support is a new low for political hypocrisy and legislators will have to answer for their reckless actions. We look forward to discussing this further.
